FORECAST

Retro romanticism and Futuristic vibes. A fresh feeling of nostalgia will bring familiar motifs, colours and textures, reinforcing the virtues of local techniques and ornamentation. Dusty retro colours give a poetic twist at ditsy florals and naive geometry or figurative placed prints. Stripes and checks are completing the look, preferring natural and sustainable materials. On the other hand, the AI aesthetic is changing the way we see the world, and this will become more embedded as a design influence in 2025. Dissolving the distinction between fantasy and reality, embracing sensorial textures, otherworldly shapes, dreamy colours and cartoonish elements. Here new recycled synthetics are bringing confort and technicality to new blurred and immersive prints.
