FASHION SHOWS

Escapsim and Connection. The SS25 menswear shows embraced casual aesthetics, reflecting a desire for comfort and ease amid the complexities of the world. Designers sought to provide a respite from reality, offering collections that embodied softness, looseness, and a relaxed vibe. The trend highlighted fluid, versatile pieces, emphasizing artisanal details like raffia and embroidery. This season's collections presented a captivating blend of the bold and the basic, where maximalism met minimalism, and authenticity mingled with rebellion. The result was a harmonious balance that celebrated individuality and self-expression, encouraging a wardrobe that is both adaptable and expressive. From laid-back silhouettes to intricate craftsmanship, the SS25 menswear shows encapsulated a longing for both escapism and genuine connection. The smell of the sea in the air, several collections had a distinct maritime and holiday vibe, embracing a positive and optimistic outlook on the next summer season.

This report is based on data extracted from the Spring/Summer 2025 of NY, London, Milan, London and Paris with 100 collections analyzed and 20000 products scanned by AI. The % shows the trend growth compared to SS24. Find the relating icons & stamps on the last slide.

GLOBAL ASSORTMENT MEN SS25

SS25 vs SS24 MEN FASHION SHOWS GLOBAL ASSORTMENT

The man sketched out for summer 2025 through the international fashion shows, displays a carefree, effortless elegance, with sober, comfortable textures and linear, uncomplicated shapes.

The SS25 man favors a smart, flexible wardrobe with a few essential pieces: a suit, heavy canvas pants that last over time, the essential shorts, V-neck polo shirts and blouses, a few lightweight knits, an overcoat and a small nylon jacket. Not forgetting the essentials for the sea. The look is slightly imperfect, monochromatic in neutral hues with the occasional check or stripe. Logos and monograms disappear. The Retro Resorting trend, with its slightly old-fashioned riviera chic, is all the rage. T-shirt and shirts are investment pieces for next summer as crop pants and bermuda shorts. To protect themselves from the increasingly unstable summer weather, men will no longer go without light jackets and coats to protect themselves from rain and wind with practicality and elegance. The current context has clearly prompted fashion houses to opt for more commercial collections.

SS25 FASHION SHOWS DESIGN DIRECTIONS

For Spring/Summer 2025, menswear trends showcase a blend of retro charm and contemporary vibrancy. Leading the charge, Retro Resorting recalls a maritime preppy aesthetic, experiencing a significant surge of +90% compared to SS24. This look embraces nautical elements and classic prep, revitalizing the timeless seaside style. Utility wear softens its edge with a powdery, tender palette, reflecting a +28% growth as practicality meets subtle elegance. Preppy styles, dipped in pastels, rise by +13%, offering a fresh, colorful twist on wardrobe basics. Natural styles in suede and neutral tones, maintaining a +20% growth, evoke an authentic yet luxurious coastal vibe. While normcore tailoring remains stable, it shows its first decline at -9%, paving the way for more expressive themes. Eccentric Summertime Boys explore bold blossoms in fluorescent hues and vibrant color blocking, reminiscent of the 90s club kid style, signaling a shift towards more adventurous and exuberant fashion narratives.
